2017 AWFTT Pastors & Leaders Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

We are pleased to extend this invitation to your company to be one of the sponsors for our upcoming Pastors & Leaders Conference. As a Pastors & Leaders Conference sponsor, you will have the opportunity to connect, interact, and network with ministry leaders from across the country. Our conference has proven to yield positive results to senior pastors, church leaders, lay persons, and businesses throughout the years. This sponsorship will give you an opportunity to showcase your company and hopefully further the gospel through clients you may attract and maintain during the conference.

Attached, you will find the sponsorship package with various support levels. Your donation comes with a plethora of benefits based upon your commitment level. Please review the information to determine which package best suits you. The deadline for sponsorship is September 22, 2017. All ads, images, and/or video footage must be submitted by this date.

We look forward to an affirmative response of sponsorship from you to make this event even more successful, as well as the potential growth for your company. Don't hesitate to contact us if we can answer any questions or be of additional assistance.
